Author's Notes:
This came to me earlier this week for the \"shadows\" prompt for the drabble challenge.

I lurk in the shadows.

Always watching him play.

I can't help it; I'm drawn to him somehow.

The way his fingers bend the notes that break my heart.

He has total power over me, making me come to him and watch in stunned silence.

I don't know how he does it, how he's able to tap right into that part of me that yearns.

Yearns for love, yearns for companionship, and yearns for living without pain.

He'll never know what he has over me. He'll never know he's slowly healing my years of scars.

Maybe some day he will.
